Admin Website For POD Booking Coffee

Front End Developer

Engine: ReactJS, Axios, Formik, Yup, MUI, Chartjs , React Toastiy, Socket

Description:

The POD Booking Management System is a web application designed for administrators, allowing users to manage and track POD bookings by using a client-server architecture, implementing RESTful APIs for integration and communication between components.

The application provides a user-friendly interface that enables administrators to perform actions such as viewing, adding, modifying, and deleting information about PODs, as well as managing related products and services.
